

December 2007

CONSULTATION ON RESIDENCE AND DOMICILE

In the Pre-Budget Report the government announced a package of reforms affecting the personal tax rules on residence and domicile. The government has now published a consultation document which contains further detail on the proposed changes.

This guidance is consultation, at this stage, and we will keep you informed of developments.

Internet Link: Consultation document